Admission procedures for foreign students coming to the ENSA-PB

Conditions of admission	We recommend that students integrate the ENSA-PB at the beginning of the first semester in September. Students generally come for the second or third year of study (Bachelor's Degree) or for the first year of the Master's degree, although it is also possible to come for the fifth year of study (second year of the Master's degree). (Students coming for the fifth year of study are required to take courses in the Master 1 program). In all cases, students are required to enroll in the courses offered in the year for which they are registered. Their course of study should be compatible with the structure of the ENSA-PB program in which they are enrolled. The student must have acquired a sufficient command of the french language, level B1 recommended
-------------------------	--

Application procedure and deadlines for nominations /registrations	The home university nominates students to the ENSA-PB's international exchanges department by e-mail and then receives the nomination procedure online. The student then receives the link that will allow them to register online. Deadline for online nominations by the university : 1st semester : April, 15th 2022 2nd semester : October, 28th 2022 Deadline for online registration by students : 1st semester : May, 13th 2022 2nd semester : November, 10th 2022 A certificate of admission to Ensa-PB will be sent to the student.
Language and language courses	All classes are taught in French. Intensive French courses take place in August/September (2 ECTS credits). French courses are proposed all year round, (each semester) (1 ECTS credit). They are free and organized by the school. Credits are granted on condition that the student has attended all classes without any absences. Exams and retakes are conducted exclusively in French (English is not permitted).
Academic calendar	The academic year, divided in two semesters, lasts 10 months. It runs from late September to mid-July, with a two-week break in December, a one-week break in February, and another two-week break in April. https://www.paris-belleville.archi.fr/app/uploads/2022/10/Calendrier-L2-a-Master-22-23-MOBILITE.pdf.pdf
Pedagogical registration	A course registration form is available before the beginning of each semester; the students will be asked to classify studio and course choices in order of preference. The school cannot necessarily honour the first or second choice. Students are required to enroll in the courses offered in the year for which they are registered. Their course of study must be compatible with the structure of the ENSA-PB program in which they are enrolled. Guides for undergraduate Licence and Master can be downloaded from the school website https://www.paris-belleville.archi.fr/ (section "formation", "licence" or "master") Guides for 2022-2023 will be available at the beginning of each semester
Learning agreement (for Erasmus+ students) Draft course outline (For non-ERASMUS students)	A draft version of the learning agreement for 2022-2023 will be established before the student arrives. The learning agreement will be finalized once the final pedagogical registration is completed. A draft course outline for the 2022-2023 year will be requested before the student's arrival.
Grading	The student must obtain at least 30 ECTS credits per semester and 60 ECTS credits per year to validate his/her mobility The ENSA-PB uses the ECTS (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System). Student work is evaluated with letter-grades. Student results are documented with a ENSA-PB specific grade. Article 5 https://www.paris-belleville.archi.fr/app/uploads/2021/09/2021_reglement_etudes_21_22_VF.pdf

Housing	The ENSA-PB is not located on a campus and does not have residence halls for student accommodation. It is the students' responsibility to make the necessary housing arrangements. Some information about accommodation is available in our Welcome Guide for Foreign Students, (section "logement") and also on our website, section " actors " " students ". https://www.paris-belleville.archi.fr/acteurs/etudiants/logements/
Arriving at the ENSA-PB	A welcome session and architectural visits are organised in September for the first semester and in February for the second semester. Welcome guide for foreign students Please read carefully https://www.paris-belleville.archi.fr/app/uploads/2022/07/2022_etudiant-accueilli-en-mobilite_complet_w.pdf
Health insurance and civil liability Insurance	Health insurance Ø Students that are European Union citizens will send a copy of their valid, up-to-date European Health Insurance Card. Ø Students that are NON-European Union citizens will have to register on the web site https://etudiant-etranger.ameli.fr/#/ Civil liability Insurance Each student is required to have a civil liability insurance valid in France, which covers the damage he or she might cause to others. This insurance should be purchased in France at a cost of about 15 euros.
